"BIG FOOT" SAYS HE HIT DOTSON

And Claims He Was Justified In Doing So—Examining Trial Of Negro Set For Thursday

"Big Foot" John Engleman, admits that he is the man who knocked Mitchell Dotson, Waynesburg cattle man, unconscious, on Macksville street Saturday night about a month ago. Chief of Police B. D. Carter brought Engleman in from Lebanon, where he was caught last Thursday night, and the negro admitted to him, the Chief says, that he struck Dotson, but claims that he was justified in doing so.

The negro was brought before County Judge Bailey for his examining trial Monday morning but said that he was not ready, and the case went over until Thursday morning. It is expected that he will be held over to the grand jury, without going into testimony, on the part of the commonwealth as Dotson is still in the Danville hospital, recovering from the operation which was made upon his skull with the hope of saving his life.

According to Chief Carter, the negro says that he met Dotson on Macksville street late the Saturday night in question, and that Dotson demanded that Engleman go and bring him a certain woman. Engleman says he refused to do so, whereupon Dotson called him a "son of a b—" and Engleman says he then picked up a piece of timber that was handy and struck Dotson over the head. When Dotson sank to the ground unconscious, the negro ran away. Dotson's testimony, when it is able to give it, will undoubtedly be heard with interest, in view of the defense that the negro sets up, in what was considered at first blush, a very bad case.

CAPT. LOWE DEAD.

Sunday's Courier-Journal tells of the death in Louisville of Capt. J. Mat Lowe, who was in the employ of the L. & N. railroad since 1857 up to ten years ago, when he was retired on a pension, given by that great corporation. For twenty or more years Capt. Lowe ran a passenger train by Stanford and he is remembered as being one of the most courteous conductors on the system. He knew almost everybody and had a cordial greeting for all who rode on his train. "Good morning," was the way he addressed passengers and it mattered not the time of day was it "good morning" with Capt. Lowe, who has gone the way of all good. The railroad officials had implicit confidence in Capt. Lowe and it is told that when his train got in trouble that his statement of how it happened had more weight than all others combined. It was his custom to go straight to headquarters and tell of what had occurred and his statement was invariably borne out by the testimony of others. He was a fine old gentleman and was held in high esteem by the heads and employees of the company, for which he worked a half century.

LATEST WAR NEWS

French forces continued their attack on the east bank of the River Meuse, in the Verdun region, and after a violent struggle captured Bezonaux and the wood to the west of hat village. The French advance was checked in front of German positions on heights north of Bezonaux. Attempts of British detachments to enter German trenches near Hannes-camps, south of Arras, were sanguinarily repulsed.

The Teutonic armies under Field Marshal von Mackensen in Eastern Wallachia have crossed the Buzeu and lower Calmatuul Rivers, and in addition to taking 1,150 prisoners captured great quantities of railroad rolling stock with innumerable vehicles of other kinds. The pursuit of the Russian and Rumanian troops in Dobruja continues and the Teutonic forces now are close to the forest district in the north, where it is expected the Russo-Rumanian armies will offer a stiff resistance.

Desperate encounters marked the fighting in Volhynia, where the forces of Prince Leopold are declared by the Berlin War Office to have stormed yards north of the railroad between Kovel and Lutsk, capturing five officers, 300 men and several machine guns and mine throwers.

Cough Medicine For Children

Mrs. Hugh Cook, Scottsville, N. Y., says: "About five years ago when we were living in Garbutt, N. Y., I doctored two of my children suffering from colds with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and found it just as represented in every way. It promptly checked their coughing and cured their colds quicker than anything I ever used." Obtainable everywhere.

No Trace Of Reed Boy

Lad Left Home Three Weeks Ago Without Overcoat or Overshoes

C. R. Reed, on the Danville pike, was in town Monday and says that not a word or report of any kind has been heard from his little 14-year-old son, Charles Morgan Reed, who has been mysteriously missing from home for over three weeks now. Mr. Reed was in Danville again last week interviewing the negro who says he bought the boy's bicycle, who he claims told him, he was going to board a train for Cincinnati. Mr. Reed is of the opinion that the negro knows more about his son's disappearance than he has told. The negro had sawed off the handle bars of the machine and had otherwise disguised it. Mr. Reed says that he could give no satisfactory reason for doing so.

Mrs. Reed is still almost prostrated over the disappearance of her little son. That he had no thought of leaving home permanently is felt by all of the family. The lad had even told his mother the kind of pie that he wanted her to cook for dinner the next day. He was lightly dressed and took no overcoat or overshoes with him, so unless he found a job immediately, he is bound to be suffering this sort of weather. Mr. Reed cannot get the idea out of his head that the lad never left Danville. He believes that if the child had, he would have communicated with his folks before this. He is very apprehensive that his little son was foully dealt with in some way. The police of Danville are giving him every assistance possible, he says, but so far no clues have been discovered which would give any indication of his whereabouts. The case is certainly a mysterious one.

LUNCHEON FOR DR. SOUTHWICK

One of the most enjoyable social events of the season was the Japanese luncheon given at the "Princess" by the Dramatic Art Club, in honor of their guest, Dr. Southwick, of the Emerson College, on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 16th. The table was beautifully decorated in carnations. Beautiful Japanese linen covered the table. A delightful three course luncheon was served. Among those present were: Dr. Southwick, Mrs. W. K. Warner, Mrs. W. R. Todd, Misses Esther Burch, Marie Ballard, Annie K. and Elizabeth Matheny, Bessie Moore, Kattie Jones, Anne Davis McRoberts, Gertrude Wilkinson and Lorraine Totten.

SURPRISED THEIR FRIENDS

The many friends of Mrs. Juritha Johnson will learn with much surprise of her marriage to Mr. Oren Hillyer, of Council Bluffs, Iowa. Mrs. Hillyer is the oldest daughter of J. H. Newell of Middleburg and is both popular and accomplished. Mr. Hillyer is a very prosperous Iowa farmer and stock dealer. After spending a few days with the bride's parents they for their home at Council Bluffs.

GOOD TIMES IN SOUTH

Renewing his subscription to the I. J. for another year, Mr. J. F. Robinson, of Garrard, who deals extensively in horses and mules in Georgia, writes from Macon, Ga., as follows: "I enclose you herewith my check for $1.50 for your good paper for another year. Twenty-five cent cotton has put everybody down here in a good humor for Xmas and here's wishing you a merry one."

CONCERNING STANFORD FAIR

A meeting of those who have subscribed for a stock in the next year's Stanford fair will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the K. P. hall in Stanford. All those who have put their names down for stock and all who are interested in seeing Stanford continue to give the biggest and best country fair in the state are urged to be present at this meeting.

14 Degrees Below Zero

Coldest Weather In Several Years Follows Heavy Snowfall

Monday night, or rather early Tuesday morning brought a record temperature for the present, and several other winters in Stanford. At 2 A. M. Tuesday morning the mercury registered 14 degrees below zero. Miss Lena Hampton, proprietor of the Logan avenue greenhouses, remained up all of Monday night to see that the heavy freeze did not kill her valuable plants. She says that at 2 A. M. the mercury went to 14 degrees below zero, remained there for half an hour and then slowly ascended. It hovered between 30 and 35 above most of Tuesday. The heaviest snowfall of several seasons, also covers the ground at present, having set in Sunday night. It followed close upon the heels of a light snowfall of a few days before, which prepared the ground well to hold the present covering of white which is four or five inches deep in some places.

$1,000 Damage Verdict

Against L. & N. In One Of Paint Lick Flood Damage Cases

One of the much-talked-of Paint Lick damages cases against the L. & N. railroad was decided in the Garrard circuit court last week when George Conn, of Paint Lick was awarded $1,000 damages against the railroad. Mr. Conn sued the railroad for damages resulting from reconstruction of a bridge over Paint Lick creek causing water to overflow his property. The L. & N. fought every inch of the ground, having many attorneys to assist the company attorney there.

Mrs. McKeechne Wins Suit. Judgment was also rendered last week against the Central Life Insurance Company of Lexington in the sum of $2,500 in favor of Mrs. William McKeechne, whose husband died about a year ago, carrying on his life a policy for the amount, naming his wife the beneficiary. The company resisted payment on the ground that the insured was not a fit subject physically at the time the application was taken.

FUNERAL OF MRS. SHELBY

A number of friends here attended the funeral of Mrs. Isaac Shelby, which was held at their home this side of Shelby City Sunday afternoon, interment following in the Danville cemetery. The sudden death of Mrs. Shelby has cast a gloom over the whole family connection and friends. She was 37 years of age, and up to the last few days before her death, had enjoyed excellent health. She had been complaining, however, for several days, and Dr. Jackson, of Danville, had treated her. Death came suddenly, however Friday from heart trouble. Mrs. Shelby, before her marriage was Miss Margaret McAtee, of Marion county, and not a McElroy, as the I. J. stated Friday. Her husband alone survives. They lost their only child some years ago. Mr. Shelby has the sympathy of a host of friends in this his hour of great bereavement.

WOODS LOSE THEIR CLOTHES

The home of George Woods, colored, burned at Boneyville, the colored settlement south of Stanford, Sunday, and all the effects of the woman and her family went up in smoke. At the same time, nearly all of the washable clothes of Mr. and Mrs. George Woods and family, of this city, were also destroyed. The colored woman was "washerwoman" for Mr. Wood's family and had taken the dirty linens home with her to wash and they went up in flames with her own clothes, furniture, etc. The loss fall quite heavily on all concerned.

TRAINS HIT IN MOUNTAINS

Local passenger trains coming from the mountains late last week were delayed by a coal car smash-up. Two trainmen were seriously injured when a coal train clashed, head-on, into a long string of empty cars near Harlan. The men were extricated and removed to a nearby house where physicians were summoned. Several cars were derailed and it was some hours before the track was cleared.

Road Work Shut Down

On Weather Account And Woodards Move Their Equipment

Winter weather has compelled the Wilmore Construction Company and the Jessamine County Construction, of which the Woodard brothers are managers to close down their reconstruction work upon the Crab Orchard and Danville turnpikes. They completed 10.9 miles of pike work since the first named company moved its plant into the county on May 10th last, of which 7.9 miles of reconstruction work was done on the Stanford and Crab Orchard pike and three miles on the Stanford and Danville pike, these two pikes constituting integral parts of the famous Boone Way. A total tonnage of 22,211 of rock was placed upon both of the roads, which gives an estimate of the big job which these two companies had on their hands. All of this was done under the state aid plan, by which the state pays half of the cost. The total cost including ditching, shaping and resurfacing amounted to $33,126.28, and the management states that 95 per cent of this was spent right here in Lincoln county for material, etc. Mr. R. G. Young, the capable and popular business manager for the two big concerns, handled a great part of it in buying from local dealers supplies and material.

All who have been over the reconstructed pikes which these companies have finished are loud in their praise of the condition in which they have been put, and those who have occasion to drive over the Jessamine county roads, say they wish that such experienced road construction men as these would be placed in charge of the reconstruction work in that, their home county. County Engineer McKee Riffe, and State Inspector Jack Carson and State Supervisor Obenchain have watched carefully the work done by these two construction companies, and are well pleased. Whether these two companies shall return to Lincoln in the spring to complete these two pikes, and take up other work, is a matter to be settled by the letting of further bids and contracts later, it is understood. The Woodards, Mr. Young and their capable assistants made many friends while in Lincoln, who will always have a good word for them and their work.

"DAD" WILDER DEAD

James Wilder, one of the best known of the older residents in this section of the county, died at his home Sunday night after a lengthy illness. Softening of the brain was the direct cause of his death. Mr. Wilder was known to his host of friends as "Dad" and was in many respects a remarkable old man. He was born in Virginia 82 years ago, the son of David Wilder. He was the father of a large family and leaves many descendants and friends to mourn that "Dad" is no more. Interment was in the Ruth Branch cemetery.

Former Marshal Luther Herron was elected chief of police and Orville Back superintendent of water works and tax collector by the Lancaster city council last week.

Youngster Went Visiting

And Parents of the East End Thought He Was Lost Sunday

Preachersville, Dec. 18. The Drake's Creek neighborhood was thrown into intense excitement when it was learned that the little four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Weyler was lost late Sunday afternoon. A general search was instituted by the neighbors and continued until about dark when he was found safe and well at the home of the Crank family about three-quarters of a mile distant. When Mrs. Weyler missed her child shortly after dinner, she concluded that the little one had followed his father to the tobacco barn on the back side of the farm. Upon Mr. Weyler's return about four o'clock the good lady was terrified when told the child had not been with Mr. Weyler. He was badly frightened to learn the babe had been absent so long with nothing known of its whereabouts. An uncovered cistern, the creek, and nearby dangerous places were immediately searched. After a considerable hunt the little one was found at the Crank home, warm and snug and being amused by playthings by members of the family.

His many friends here are glad to learn that Mr. Frank Rigsby, of Sonoma, Ariz., will arrive in time for Christmas. It is understood that he will most likely remain here with his father, Mr. J. H. Rigsby.

Master Rice Arnold spent Sunday with Master Woods Finch at Drake's Creek Stock Farm.

There will be an Xmas tree for the benefit of the Baptist Sunday school Saturday afternoon at one o'clock P. M.

The Baptist brethren will send a nice box to the Baptist Orphan's Home on Friday in time for Christmas cheer.

Little Miss Mamie Jordan is up at Pineville to visit her grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. R. F. Jordan. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Jordan plan to join her there for the season's festivities.

Mr. Ebb Lee has been spending some time with Mr. W. F. Ballard.

F. F. Blankenship and son, Fount, Jr., visited homefolks.

Fado Parks says he will start his grist mill Saturday morning. He did no grinding last Saturday; no grist on hand.

Mr. F. F. Cummins is confined to his room with a deep cold.

Messrs. Joe Lunsford and Woodson Carpenter sold their tobacco crops, of 1,300 and 2,000 pounds at 17-1-2 and 16-1-2 cents respectively at Danville last week.

George Severance and family have moved to near Crab Orchard. Ed Bell and wife have moved into the house vacated by Mr. Severance.

Little Bettie Mae, four-year-old daughter of W. C. Blankenship has been quite sick of pneumonia but is better now.

A number of steel traps were stolen from dens near the Dick's river bridge. The owner knows the one who took the traps, and if the traps are not put back to the place where they were lifted from by Christmas day, the owner will pay for space in this paper to publish the wrongdoer's name. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

DANGER SIGNAL

If the fire bell should ring would you run and stop it or go and help to put out the fire? It is much the same way with a cough. A cough is a danger signal as much as a fire bell. You should no more try to suppress it than to stop a fire bell when it is ringing, but should cure the disease that causes the coughing. This can nearly always be done by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many have used it with the most beneficial results. It is especially valuable for the persistent cough that so often follows a bad cold or an attack of the grip. Mrs. Thomas Beeching, Andrews, Ind., writes: "During the winter my husband takes cold easily and coughs and coughs. Chamberlain's Remedy is the best medicine for breaking up these attacks and you cannot get him to take any other." Obtainable everywhere.

DRYE GETS IN

SHERIFF'S RACE

Well Known West End Democrat And Present Chief Deputy Sheriff Issues Announcement

The Interior Journal is authorized to announce W. S. Drye as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Lincoln county, subject to the primary the first Saturday in August 1917. Mr. Drye is too well known all over Lincoln to need any introduction in connection with the announcement of his candidacy. Ever since attaining his majority he has been one of the hardest-working democrats of the West End of the county, being a resident of Hustonville. He has served as chief deputy under Sheriff J. G. Weatherford and has made many new friends over the county, who are very loyal to him and will undoubtedly rally strongly to his banner in the forthcoming race. In making his announcement, Mr. Drye issues the following card to the democrats of Lincoln county:

To The Democrats of Lincoln County

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for sheriff of Lincoln county, subject of course, to the action of the democratic party. I make no particular claim of my achievements nor the work I have done for my party, but as a democrat, who has never scratched a ticket nor faltered in my party affiliations, I ask the honor of serving the people of the county I was born in and have always lived in, as high sheriff. It is a well-known fact that I have been and am still a deputy under Sheriff Weatherford, and whether or not I have performed my duties well in that capacity, I leave to the people to decide. I will appreciate greatly any and all support given me and pledge that my best efforts will be used in the event I am nominated and elected sheriff of Lincoln. Asking your consideration of my claims and hoping to serve you in the capacity of sheriff.

I am very truly,
W. S. DRYE.

TOM FARMER GETS GUARDSHIP

Tom Farmer, a well known local democrat of the Neal's Creek section, was last week appointed to a guardship at the Frankfort penitentiary and will in the future be known as Capt. Farmer. Mr. Farmer, who is a hard-working democrat, was promised the place by friends of Gov. Stanley during the Stanley-McChesney primary in 1915, and is just now being rewarded for the good work he and his friends did for the present governor at that time. The guardship pays $75 a month, and it not hard work, except being a trifle confining.

THE SOUTHWICK RECITAL

The Shakespeare lovers of Stanford enjoyed an unusual privilege Saturday afternoon at the opera house when the opportunity was given them to hear the interpretation of "Julius Caesar" by Prof. Henry Lawrence Southwick. Dr. Southwick, president of Emerson College of Oratory, classic teacher, orator and artist is a brilliant and prominent figure on the lyceum platform. He was introduced by Miss Esther Whitley Burch, speaking in behalf of the Dramatic Club. Dr. Southwick is a thorough Shakespearean scholar and a superb elocutionist. He is a finished dramatic reader, holding his audience spellbound and reading his lines with such sympathy and suggestiveness that his interpretation lent new force and meaning to the tragedy. Surely he was all that Shakespeare could have wanted him to be, taking his hearers out of themselves and making them live and feel with the characters as he presented them. He, behind each word, had an attitude, a gesture, a quick contraction of the brows or a curl of laughing lips which made of his characters men, whether Brutus, the noble Anthony or the humble cobbler. Brutus was revealed in his honest though misguided efforts to create a great republic; Anthony in his sincere grief and fixed purpose to ruin the conspirators. The mob scenes were unusually natural as those who have witnessed such things can testify.

LOOK OUT, HUNTERS

Hunters had better beware of New Year's Day. Sportmen who go out New Year's Day after quail should make a resolution to get a 1917 hunting license or they will be liable to arrest. The licenses expire Dec. 31, but the quail season lasts twenty-four hours longer and there are no days of grace on a State license. Another good resolution would be to abstain from shooting at rabbits; for, while it is clear that quail may be shot January 1, the law does not clearly indicate that it is legal to shoot rabbits.

Miss Orpha Denham left Dec. 2, for Dade City, Fla. Miss Denham will spend a while with her sister, Mrs. Harry Neal and then spend the remainder of the winter touring the east gulf and Atlantic coast cities, returning in the spring via boat from Jacksonville-Baltimore, and thence by rail home.

Steele & Burton sold to Arthur Wilkinson a five-passenger Ford car this week.

Mrs. Anna Johnson and son, of Danville, were here last Friday to visit her father, Evan Lyons.

Robert Routen returned from Lexington last week where he had been to have his eyes looked after, but received no relief. About a year ago he lost sight of one of his eyes and a short time ago the other eye failed him. He immediately went in search of help but nothing can be done.

A disastrous fire for our town was narrowly averted last Saturday morning at W. H. Lair's store. On entering the store Mr. Lair was very much surprised to find the store entirely filled with smoke. The fire was discovered to be under the front part of the heating stove where fire from the stove had fallen out or a stub of a cigarette or cigar had been thrown.

The fire was soon extinguished. Marshall Herring was called early last Saturday morning to the store of Bohon & Stagg, at Kidd's Store. The store had been broken up and no clue could be had. Entrance had made underneath a shed room by prizing up the floor. The dogs took trail and carried it for a few miles over the knobs to a hemp house back of John Asbury, Jr., where no further trail could be had.

Home Talent Play Xmas Night

A delightful and interesting home talent play will be given at the opera house Monday night, Dec. 25th under the auspices of the Stanford W. C. T. U. The play is entitled "The Turn of the Tide," and the sum realized from admission fees will go to aid the splendid work the W. C. T. U. is doing. An "all-star" cast has been secured for the entertainment and a crowded house seems assured.

Be sure to see Dr. O'Bannon, as the reformed drunkard, and comedian; Mrs. Wilson as the female comedian and Mr. William Grimes as the negro comedian. The others are not comedy parts but are all great. 100-2

Mr. Hugh Logan has moved to his home on Lancaster street, the Doores place.

Junction City

Mr. Dow Singleton, our efficient Q. & C. section foreman went to Chattanooga Saturday on business.

Mrs. Mary Wallin, aged 66 years, died Friday afternoon after a few weeks' illness of dropsy at her home on Bellevue avenue. Her funeral was preached at the Catholic church Sunday morning in the presence of a large crowd of friends and relatives. The deceased left a son, Mr. Mack Wallin and a daughter, Miss Mollie Wallin to mourn her loss.

Rev. Ernest Ford, who is a coming young preacher, preached two good sermons Sunday at the Christian church and in the afternoon at 3 p. m., gave many good suggestions to the officers and teachers of the Sunday School as to the best methods to pursue in the building up of our Sunday School next year.

Rev. Bruce McDonald is having Mr. W. E. Johnston fix up his organ for the use of the Junction City school in singing service each morning and has not missed a single Monday to open up the morning exercises.

Remember some poor unfortunate one next door to whom Santa Claus may not come this Christmas, and quietly give him or her of your abundance, this Christmas.

Mrs. J. W. Bailey made an eloquent plea for Red Cross seals Friday at Junction City school, and every high school pupil responded nobly, as did the grades. Boyle county needs a visiting nurse all the time especially in the winter time and every Red Cross Christmas stamp sold helps out that much.

Mr. G. R. Wilkinson, of Liberty, was up Thursday to see about his Shelby City property.

Mrs. E. J. Tanner and daughter, Miss Ruth Tanner, of McKinney, were the guests Saturday and Sunday of her sister, Mrs. S. W. Burke, Sr.

Mr. Billie Masden, of Lebanon Junction, spent Sunday with friends in Junction City.

Mr. S. R. Wilder, who lost his right arm in a hemp brake is doing nicely. He lost his left leg some years ago.

Mrs. E. L. Grubbs entertained the members of the Embroidery Club Thursday with three of their guests. Born on Saturday night, Dec. 2, a fine baby girl to Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Preston. Has been named Dorothy Rebecca.

Lot Sale Postponed

Partition of Vandever Park Goes Over To May 5th.

The heavy snow which fell last Friday night forced the cancellation of the Vandever lot sale, which had been advertised for Saturday. Judge W. E. Varnon, who was here in charge of affairs, took advantage of the court's decree which provided that the sale might be held May 5th, in the event that conditions arose, which they did—that made it unwise to sell at the present time. Judge Varnon had gone to considerable expense to advertise the sale of the Vandever Park lots and there was much interest aroused in the prospective sale of these attractive building sites. Several well known men had expressed the intention of bidding for several of the offerings, and it was a disappointment all round that the sale had to be declared off. It was felt, however, that much better results could be realized by postponing the sale till spring, when there will be little danger of snow, and the tracts will be green and at their best. Col. John W. Bain, of Lexington, one of the best known auctioneers in the state, came over to cry the sale, as Judge Varnon was unable to catch him over the phone and notify him of the postponement. Judge Varnon left Monday evening for his home in Asheville, N. C., but plans to return in the spring and put on a big sale of these attractive building sites.
